Interim Management Services

Professionals at Work for You

What distinguishes our services from typical interim management firms is our close working relationship with employers to temporarily fill critical post-acute health care leadership positions. We utilize industry insight, expertise and knowledge to go beyond a simple skill match to find the right professional, who will be compatible with the culture, values and mission of your organization.

The Right Interim Solution to Meet Your Needs

Having a vacant key leadership position affects clinical quality outcomes and impacts the financial health of your organization. Pathway Health can guide this transition by assisting you in finding an experienced interim staff member.

If you have a management position that will be vacant, are conducting a search for a new leader, or need to fill a key position due to vacation or medical leave, we invite you to consider the benefits of utilizing an Interim professional through Pathway Health.
