Expertise to Lead and Achieve More

Our close working relationship with employers—to fill critical health care leadership positions—distinguishes Pathway Health from typical recruiting firms. We utilize industry insight, expertise and knowledge to go beyond a simple skill match. We find the right professional who will be compatible with the culture, value and mission of your organization. Our candidates are ready to meet the demands and pressures of the changing health care environment.

For more than two decades, we have placed leading post-acute professionals in every size of organization. Our proven track record of successful placements has resulted from our deep market knowledge and excellent screening process.

The Right Connection for the Right Role

An important factor in building the recruitment connection is trust. Because we are selective, and only present the best candidate/employer matches to ensure satisfaction with the placement, Pathway Health has built trusted relationships with our clients. Save your organization time and resources.
