ORGANIZATION WAS ALSO NAMED A TOP 25 SMALL EMPLOYER

LAKE ELMO, Minn., July 9, 2024—Pathway Health, a leading health care consulting services, interim and permanent talent, technology implementation and training company, is proud to be named one of the Top 200 Workplaces in Minnesota for the second year in a row and one of the Top 25 Small Employers by the Star Tribune.

The evaluation by the Top Workplaces program is based upon feedback from an employee survey that was completed by Pathway Health team members a few months back. The questions looked to assess the organization's culture, employee engagement, strategic direction and areas of improvement.

Top Workplaces recognizes the most progressive companies in Minnesota based on employee opinions measuring engagement, organizational health and satisfaction. The analysis included responses from 149,176 employees at Minnesota public, private and nonprofit organizations.

"For a second year in a row, we have been recognized as a Top Workplace in Minnesota, and we couldn't be prouder. As a recognition that is solely dependent on our employees' input, I am grateful for the time and effort everyone put into sharing such a positive outlook on the state of our organization," shared Pathway Health's President and CEO, Peter B. Schuna. "I also feel a great sense of validation and pride because, since its inception, we set out to have Pathway Health be a place where individuals can thrive and feel supported. I would like to extend a big congratulations to our team. Thank you for all you do to help our customers succeed," he continued.

To qualify for the Star Tribune Top 200 Workplaces and Top 25 Small Employers, a company must have more than 50 employees in Minnesota. Over 5,000 companies were invited to participate. Rankings were composite scores calculated purely on the basis of employee responses.
